FLIGHT PLAN MAP

Greetings Eclipse Chasers!

We are looking forward to welcoming a select small group of friends on this exciting Total Solar Eclipse Adventure launching out of Iceland, and trust you would like to be one of the few privileged people to view this event with us. With an anticipated 2 minutes 40 seconds of totality we will be in the shadow for longer than anyone else anywhere along the path for this one!

Please review the Flight Plan Map for more details of the route and times. Also review these pictures of the King Air B200 we have secured for this project to familiarize yourself with the seating options on board. You will see that seats on the right side all have excellent very large round windows. The sun will be at about 25 degrees elevation which will be very favorable for viewing the eclipse.

The King Air has a seating configuration for 9 passengers, five on the right hand side, which is the side the sun will be on, and four on the left hand side. Participants who select a right side window seat should be aware, and respectful, that the person sitting in the left side seat will be viewing from across the aisle. The very large window and desirable angle of the sun should make it possible for both people to have a great view of the entire eclipse.
